

Appeal Resolution Summary

On October 29, 2010, the Forest Service met with two appellants – the Northern Oregon Motorcycle and ATV Club and Bark – to discuss potential resolution of their appeals. Both appellants withdrew their appeals based on the following resolution agreement:

1. The Mt. Hood National Forest would implement a monitoring plan prepared in consultation with all interested parties;
2. The Mt. Defiance location be withdrawn from the decision; and,
3. Road 4820-140 and a portion of road 4820-150 in the Rock Creek location be included in the decision (see attached map, “Rock Creek Appeal Resolution Map”).
